

Benefits at a Glance

The quick benefits, perks and policies guide to being a Googler in India.

Google strives to be different, innovative and the best at what we do, and that includes our benefits, perks, and policies. Our goal is to help make Googlers (and their families) healthier, more resilient, and overall, better people.

We offer competitive benefits and provide education and resources to help Googlers take responsibility for their well-being so they can concentrate on the things they love to do, both in and out of work.

Googlers have diverse needs and health means something different for everyone. Therefore, we take a holistic approach to health that encompasses physical, emotional, financial and social health, and aim to offer benefits that give Googlers choice based on whatever their goals, life situation or passions may be.

Read on for a quick guide to everything that Googlers benefit from.

Health and well-being

Googlers are our greatest asset. We are committed to benefits and programs that make it as easy as possible to keep them happy and healthy.

Private Medical Insurance

Google provides comprehensive medical care including : Hospital and surgical expenses, psychiatric treatment, and maternity expenses to their employees & their dependents.

Private Dental Insurance

Google offers comprehensive dental care : oral care for their employees and their dependents

Vision insurance

Google provides vision coverage which includes: Glasses or contact lenses, laser eye surgery, etc.

Employee Assistance Program (EAP)

Human Dynamic EAP services are free and confidential to all Googlers working a minimum of 20 hours/week. Each employee and their dependents/ domestic partners can receive free & confidential short-term counseling, one free 30-minute legal consult per incident, financial counseling, and much more.

Financial security

From a retirement plan to life insurance, we want Googlers to have peace of mind no matter what stage of life they are at.

There's also a free 24-hour helpline with expert help and advice on tap and easy access to counselling services.

Employee Provident Fund

The Provident Fund is a retirement benefit, which is accumulated on a monthly basis, into the employees provident fund account. The employer makes a matching contribution to this fund.

Life Insurance

Life insurance cover is 4 times annual base salary and Target Bonus or Rs. 10 lakhs, whichever is greater.

Accidental Death & Dismemberment Insurance

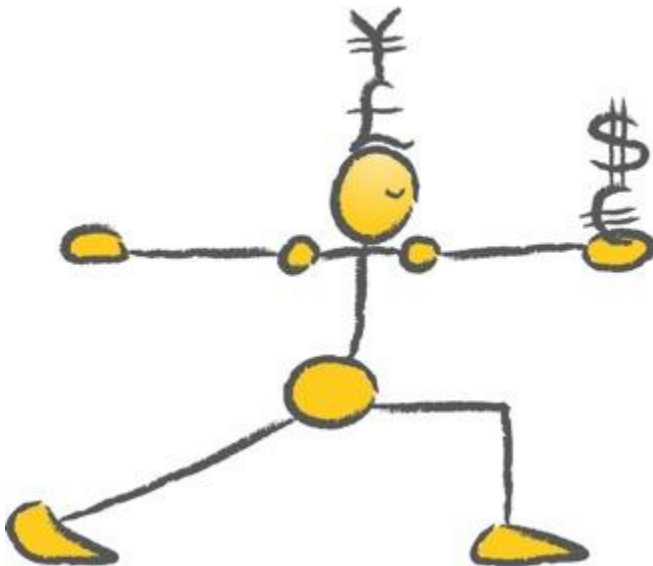

4 times annual Base Salary + Target bonus is payable depending upon the nature of the injury and the degree of disability.

Travel Benefits

Google's global business travel assistance program is designed to keep Googlers safe when away from home on business or vacation. A 24/7 assistance service is in place to help in emergency situations.

Stock Options and GSUs

Googlers may be granted GSUs which entitle the holder to a share of Google stock when the unit vests.

Time away

We all need time to relax and rejuvenate on leave each year. We also recognise that personal holidays are not the only time we may need to take time away from the office and we have a range of supportive leave options.

Vacation Leave

You will receive 20 days of vacation leave in a year. You are entitled to carry over a maximum of 30 days of vacation leave. Please note that vacation balances will be pro-rated upon transfer or termination.

Educational Leave

A variety of options are available to assist part- and full-time studies. See the 'learning' section for more details.

Starting a Family

We offer a generous 20 weeks of Maternity leave, 4 weeks of paternity leave and 7 weeks of adoption leave to provide employees baby bonding and family care time.

Bereavement Leave

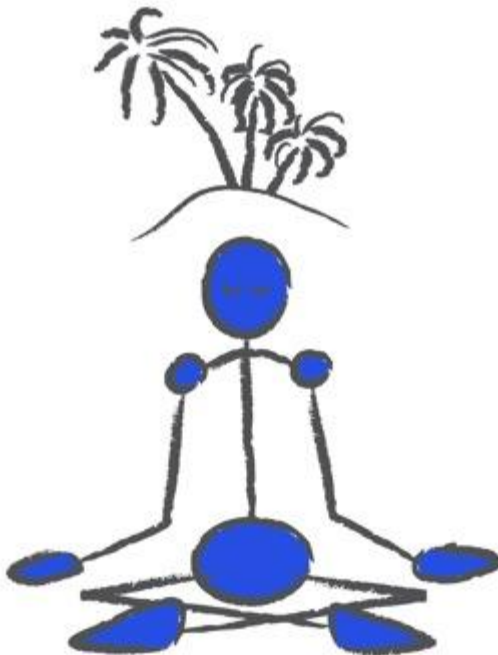

In the unfortunate event of a family member passing away, paid bereavement leave can be taken up to 5 working days.

Sick Leave

12 days of sick leave can be availed through the calendar year.

Personal Leave

Google, at its discretion, may grant an unpaid personal leave for compelling personal reasons and if no other leave is applicable. You are eligible for this leave if you have been a Google employee for at least one year. The leave may last up to 3 months with approval from your manager, the HR Business Partner and your department Director.

Supporting families

Google supports families of all sorts and sizes. Parents have support through enhanced leave options and new Googler mums and dads receive money to help feed their newly expanded family in those first few weeks following the arrival of their baby (or Googlet, as we call them!).

Maternity Leave

Google offers a generous maternity policy of 20 weeks paid leave at 100% of base salary.

Paternity Leave

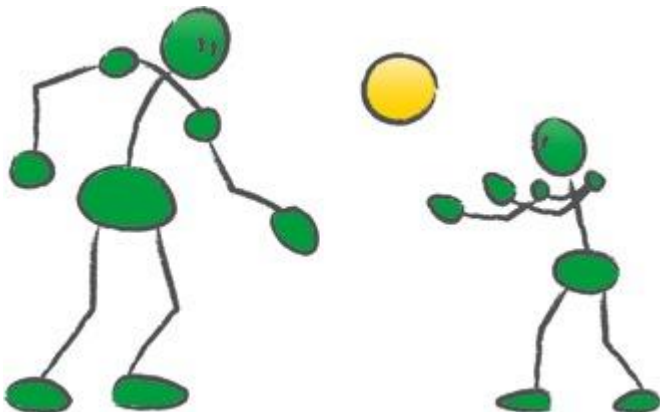

Google offers a generous 4 weeks of paternity leave paid at 100% of base salary.

Adoption Leave

Google provides an adoption Policy of 7 weeks of leave paid at 100% of base salary.

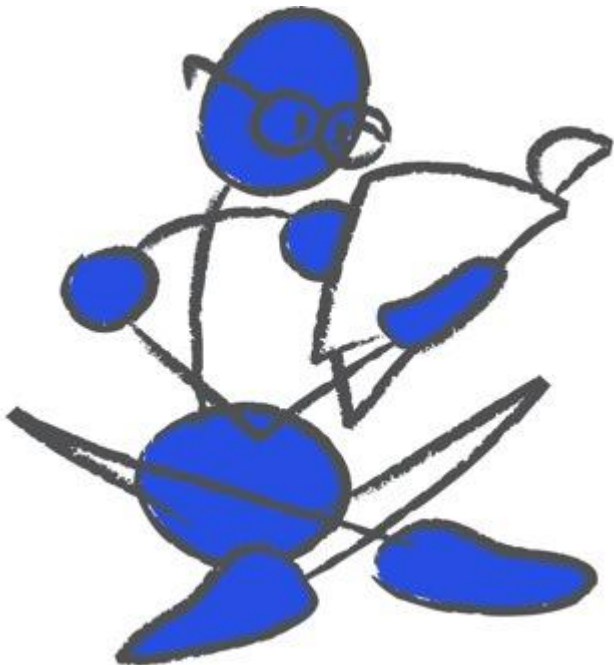

Baby Bonding Benefit

For your convenience, Google will reimburse our new parents up to Rs. 13,650 to help with the cost of catering or help around the house after the arrival of a new baby... so parents can spend more time with their newest addition!

Learning

Google is highly supportive of educational initiatives – we believe in professional growth and development for all employees. All Googlers should have the opportunity to expand their minds, grow and get better and better at what they do. It's all part of keeping Google unique and innovative.

Language Learning Programs

Google offers language lessons at no cost if speaking another language is for critical business needs or is essential to help transferring Googlers settle into a new country. For personal-interest language lessons, Google is pleased to offer access to corporate discounted rates.

Education Reimbursement

Through our education reimbursement plan, Google will reimburse Rs. 150,000 per calendar year for tuition reimbursement after successfully completing courses relevant to your current position and receiving a grade of B or better. Your manager's approval is required. The reimbursement may be applied to tuition, books, lab fees, parking passes and registration fees.

Study Leave

Googlers can access up to 5 days per year for courses that assist with professional development.

gLearn

Develop your technical, people management and leadership skills through the wealth of internal opportunities like classes, videos and mentoring programs.

G2g – Googlers to Googlers

g2g provides opportunities for Googlers to teach, share and learn from each other. Got a special skill or area of expertise you'd like to share with your peers? Or maybe you'd like to learn to teach an official EDU course? You can do both with g2g!

Other Googley programmes and perks

Googlers have a range of money saving options and rewards right at their fingertips – from their transport supplement to peer bonuses.

Transport

Google provides a transport to pick you and drop you back home.

Onsite Massage

Googlers can sign up for subsidized chair and full body massage to relax and rejuvenate!

Google Store Goodies

Googlers get a 20% discount at the Google Store, the place to buy lava lamps, beanbags and T-shirts.

Onsite Gym Google provides onsite Gym facility with instructors at all its offices. In Mumbai employees can opt for a choice of offsite gyms.

Food and Snacks

Google provides catering onsite for breakfast, lunch and dinner. In addition, there are plenty of free snacks and munchies including various sweetened or salted snacks and sodas, mineral waters and fruit juices. These snacks are freely available for all Googlers.

Referrals

We know good people know more good people and anyone who successfully introduces someone to Google will receive a referral bonus.

Peer Bonus

If you see a co-worker do something exceptional for your team, co-workers, a project, or for Google in general, you can nominate them for a peer bonus of Rs. 2500.

Gift Matching

Philanthropy is one of Google's core values. Google will match charitable donations like-for-like upto USD 3000 per donor per year.
